1. God is our strength and re- fuge, a help- er ev - er near.
 2. A qui - et stream re - fresh- es the ci - ty of our God;
 3. Be - hold God's glo - rious pow - er: He makes all war - fare cease.
 4. The vio - lent sea turned pla - cid when Je - sus cried, "Be still!"

While rest - ing in His shel - ter, no e - vil will we fear—
 His throne stands un - af - fect - ed while king - doms rise and fall.
 Each wea - pon He will shat - ter; the world will be at peace.
 Fears gone, twelve men stood gasping when waves o - beyed His will.

Not if the mountains crum - ble in - to the an - gry sea,
 One word from Ja - cob's Sav - ior will melt the rag - ing throng.
 "Be still!" cries Heav - en's Sov - 'reign, "Be still, for I am God!
 And soon the same voice speak - ing will calm earth's reb - el storm.

Nor if the surg - ing o - cean ex - ceeds its boun - da - ry.
 The Lord of Hosts is with us; He is our for - tress strong.
 All kingdoms— all cre - a - tion— will bow be - neath my rod."
 This Lord of hosts is with us both now and ev - er - more!
